

Story starter!

They were never far away from one another, the tiger and the Samurai. Their fates were surely bound together, hand in hand. It had been this way for as long as she could remember.

As they entered the cave, she wondered when they would see sunlight again...

Question time!

Look at the writing. Who do you think 'she' is making a reference to?

Who are the tiger and Samurai? How are their futures linked?

How do you think the two communicate with each other?

What do the two hope to find inside the cave?

What will actually be inside the cave?

When will they see the light of day again?

Sentence challenge!

Can you write a complex sentence containing a main clause and a subordinate clause?

Can you separate the clauses using a comma? Can you use one of the following conjunctions to link your clauses: but, or, yet, so?

- ▶ e.g. They strolled confidently towards the cave, yet there were unsure what lurked inside.

Sick sentences!

These sentences are 'sick' and need help to get better. Can you help? Could you add an adverb?

- ▶ The Samurai carried a stick. The Samurai had a sword. The Samurai wore a hat.

Perfect picture!

Imagine you are inside the cave, and that you are holding a torch.

Can you draw what it might look like inside?

Is there anything strange lurking in there?
