

Forming Nouns from Verbs

Information:

These questions have been taken from the KS2 GPS test to help your children practise specific question types.

National Curriculum Objectives:

Year 5 English: (5G6.3) [Converting nouns or adjectives into verbs using suffixes \[for example, -ate; -ise; -ify\]](#)

Differentiation:

Beginner One noun to place in the sentence formed from a verb. Aimed at Year 5 Developing.

Easy Two nouns to place in the sentence formed from verbs. Aimed at Year 5 Expected/Year 6 Emerging.

More GPS resources.

Did you like this resource? Don't forget to review it on our website.

Forming Nouns from Verbs

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb act.

I went to the cinema to watch my favourite _____ star in a new film.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb play.

The manager decided to put a new _____ on the pitch.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb enjoy.

We hope the bad weather does not spoil your _____ of the theme park.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb move.

A slight _____ of his arm gave away his hiding place.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb appear.

The sudden _____ of a mysterious figure gave us all a fright.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb react.

Her first _____ was one of joy at seeing her child safe at last.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb protect.

The bodyguard was responsible for the _____ of the famous film star.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb attend.

Lin had to discuss her poor _____ at school with the class teacher.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb own.

The _____ of the shop decided to give away free donuts to all customers.

Forming Nouns from Verbs

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb inspect.

The _____ checked that the restaurant was preparing food safely.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb lead.

The _____ of the political party was booed in Parliament.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb perform.

The _____ of the car was affected by the wet and slippery race track.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb predict.

The weather forecaster's _____ of a long, hot summer failed to come true.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb injure.

The _____ to her back was going to take many months to heal.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb embarrass.

I turned red with _____ after tearing a hole in my trousers.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb collect.

The art _____ had bought a fake painting by mistake.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb recover.

The doctor thought that the boy was making an excellent _____.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb manage.

The _____ of the football team shouted at the players on the pitch.

Forming Nouns from Verbs

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb act.

I went to the cinema to watch my favourite actor star in a new film.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb play.

The manager decided to put a new player on the pitch.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb enjoy.

We hope the bad weather does not spoil your enjoyment of the theme park.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb move.

A slight movement of his arm gave away his hiding place.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb appear.

The sudden appearance of a mysterious figure gave us all a fright.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb react.

Her first reaction was one of joy at seeing her child safe at last.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb protect.

The bodyguard was responsible for the protection of the famous film star.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb attend.

Lin had to discuss her poor attendance at school with the class teacher.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb own.

The owner of the shop decided to give away free donuts to all customers.

Forming Nouns from Verbs

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb inspect.

The inspector checked that the restaurant was preparing food safely.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb lead.

The leader of the political party was booed in Parliament.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb perform.

The performance of the car was affected by the wet and slippery race track.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb predict.

The weather forecaster's prediction of a long, hot summer failed to come true.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb injure.

The injury to her back was going to take many months to heal.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb embarrass.

I turned red with embarrassment after tearing a hole in my trousers.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb collect.

The art collector had bought a fake painting by mistake.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb recover.

The doctor thought that the boy was making an excellent recovery.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb manage.

The manager of the football team shouted at the players on the pitch.

Forming Nouns from Verbs

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb assist and buy.

The shop _____ helped the _____ purchase some new shoes.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb develop and complete.

The new housing _____ was nearing _____.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb teach and revise.

The _____ told the class to begin their _____ as tests started soon.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb refuse and employ.

His _____ to do his job meant that he was sacked by his _____.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb restrict and disappoint.

The height _____ on the ride lead to _____ from little Joe.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb support and manage.

The _____ of the club was glad to see it was under new _____.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb sing and compete.

The _____ was disqualified from entering the _____.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb hike and determine.

The tired _____ was relying on sheer _____ to finish the walk.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb inherit and donate.

Part of the boy's _____ was used to make a _____ to charity.

Forming Nouns from Verbs

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb appoint and prescribe.

I had an _____ at the surgery to get a _____ for some cream.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb confirm and decide.

We got _____ that the jury had come to a _____ about our case.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb clean and maintain.

The _____ was responsible for the general _____ of the house.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb skate and admit.

The _____ was refused _____ to the ice-skating rink.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb inform and disturb.

Police wanted _____ about the _____ that occurred last night.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb lecture and assign.

The _____ set the students a really challenging _____.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb replace and multiply.

The _____ teacher taught the children how to do _____.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb write and describe.

The talented _____ wrote a scary _____ of a spooky, old house.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb wrestle and submit.

The defeated _____ was forced into _____ by his opponent.

Forming Nouns from Verbs

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb assist and buy.

The shop assistant helped the buyer purchase some new shoes.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb develop and complete.

The new housing development was nearing completion.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb teach and revise.

The teacher told the class to begin their revision as tests started soon.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb refuse and employ.

His refusal to do his job meant that he was sacked by his employer.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb restrict and disappoint.

The height restriction on the ride lead to disappointment from little Joe.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb support and manage.

The supporter of the club was glad to see it was under new management.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb sing and compete.

The singer was disqualified from entering the competition.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb hike and determine.

The tired hiker was relying on sheer determination to finish the walk.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb inherit and donate.

Part of the boy's inheritance was used to make a donation to charity.

Forming Nouns from Verbs

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb appoint and prescribe.

I had an appointment at the surgery to get a prescription for some cream.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb confirm and decide.

We got confirmation that the jury had come to a decision about our case.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb clean and maintain.

The cleaner was responsible for the general maintenance of the house.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb skate and admit.

The skater was refused admission to the ice-skating rink.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb inform and disturb.

Police wanted information about the disturbance that occurred last night.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb lecture and assign.

The lecturer set the students a really challenging assignment.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb replace and multiply.

The replacement teacher taught the children how to do multiplication.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb write and describe.

The talented writer wrote a scary description of a spooky, old house.

Complete the sentence below with a noun formed from the verb wrestle and submit.

The defeated wrestler was forced into submission by his opponent.