

Using the conjunction if

What would you do if you met the Big Bad Wolf?

Use the word if to write some commands about what to do if you were ever unfortunate enough to meet him!

Example:

If you meet the Big Bad Wolf, don't ever tell him where you are going!

If you meet the Big Bad Wolf, run away as fast as you can because he might want to eat you!

Now try writing your own. You will probably find it helpful to practise saying them out loud before writing them down.

If you meet the Big Bad Wolf, _____

Why not turn your sentences into a warning poster?
