The Magic Poster

Aqsa loved dinosaurs. She had dinosaur toys and lots of dinosaur books. One day her nan came to visit. She gave Aqsa a box. In the box was a beautiful stegosaurus and a poster. Aqsa unfolded the poster and looked at it. It was a poster of a dinosaur land. It had hills and sand. It had lakes and trees. It also had a T. rex in it. Aqsa ran upstairs and put it on her wall. She put her stegosaurus in front of the poster. She called him Steggy.

That night Aqsa was in bed. She heard a crunching noise. She looked and saw that Steggy was inside the poster. Was Aqsa dreaming? He was eating the leaves from one of the trees. Aqsa jumped out of bed and ran to the poster. She put out her hand to touch it and it went inside! The poster was like a magic door to another world. Aqsa walked into the poster. She was in a dinosaur world!

She walked through the sand and crept past the T. rex. Suddenly she fell into a sticky swamp. She tried to climb out but the mud pulled her down. Aqsa screamed and the T. rex saw her. The T. rex came nearer and nearer.

Then Aqsa felt a tug on her pyjama top. She felt herself moving out of the mud. Steggy was pulling her out. Aqsa climbed on to Steggy and he took her back to her room away from the T. rex.

The next day she told her mum what had happened. Her mummy told her it was just a dream. Aqsa picked up Steggy. There was something sticky on his spikes. It was mud! She laughed and Steggy laughed back.
