

I can describe features of the past.

Which picture shows London in the past and which one shows London in the present?

How do you know which photo is from the past?

What things can you see on the picture that show you it is from the past?

Draw a picture of London in the 1700's.