

Roman Rule Homework

Pick 3 activities to complete over this half-term. At least one must be a Maths or English task (these are highlighted in yellow). How you complete these homework tasks are up to you - be creative! Share your learning by email, photograph or bringing it into school.

Create a comic strip about the day in the life of a Roman.	Make a model of a catapult or trebuchet.	Draw and label an artefact from Roman times.	Write an acrostic poem about the Romans.	Design a shield for a Roman legionary.	Make top trumps cards about the Romans Gods or Roman Emperors.	Find out how to make water clean using filtering.	Find out about the jobs that Romans did.	Research a Roman recipe. Can you write it down? Make it and taste test it?	Create a Roman baths.
Pick an important Roman date and research it or write a newspaper report about it.	Write a diary for the Day in the Life of an Emperor, Legionnaire or slave.	Make a model of a Roman villa.	Design a pop-up Roman landmark e.g. A Coliseum.	Make a Roman coin.	Create a piece of artwork about Mount Vesuvius' eruption.	Create a video or a digital book about a Roman story or the story of Romulus and Remus.	Use a programming app to create an obstacle course for a Roman gladiator.	Make a tourists guide for a Roman attraction e.g. Hadrian's Wall.	Find out how the Roman army expanded.
Write non-chronological reports about an aspect of Roman life	Figure out Roman road routes around your home using only straight lines and right angles	Write book reviews for a book about the Romans	Recreate the eruption of Vesuvius using biocarbonate soda.	Learn to count using Roman numerals	Write instructions for becoming a gladiator.	Weigh out ingredients to make Roman bread.	Create a diary from the point of view of a Celt during the time of the invasion.	Research Roman musical instruments	Explore beats and rhythms for the Roman army to march to and turn it into a musical composition.