

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

After her house was burgled, Kealey fitted an alarm.

The football coach tripped over the ball during the training session.

You have made such a mess!

Oh no, that car ran over my new bike!

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

After her house was burgled, Kealey fitted an alarm.

After her house was burgled, an alarm was fitted by Kealey.

The football coach tripped over the ball during the training session.

The ball was tripped over by the football coach during the training session.

You have made such a mess!

Such a mess has been made!

Oh no, that car ran over my new bike!

Oh no, my new bike has been run over by a car.

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

The farmer expects a good harvest this year.

Grandma knitted a jumper for my birthday.

As I left the airport, I dropped my cases.

The builders will fix the wall tomorrow.

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

The farmer expects a good harvest this year.

A good harvest is expected by the farmer this year.

Grandma knitted a jumper for my birthday.

A jumper was knitted by Grandma for my birthday.

As I left the airport, I dropped my cases.

As I left the airport, my cases were dropped.

The builders will fix the wall tomorrow.

The wall will be fixed by the builders tomorrow.

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

A high crime rate troubles the area.

Her mother had shrunk her best t-shirt in the wash.

The musician would have performed a new song.

Is he preparing the meal?

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

A high crime rate troubles the area.

The area is troubled by a high crime rate.

Her mother had shrunk her best t-shirt in the wash.

Her best t-shirt had been shrunk in the wash by her mother.

The musician would have performed a new song.

A new song would have been performed by the musician.

Is he preparing the meal?

Is the meal being prepared by him?

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

He did not want eggs and bacon.

Does the policeman catch the thief?

You ought to tidy your room.

We might play a board game later.

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

He did not want eggs and bacon.

Eggs and bacon were not wanted.

Does the policeman catch the thief?

Is the thief caught by the policeman?

You ought to tidy your room.

Your room ought to be tidied.

We might play a board game later.

A board game might be played by us later.

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

I was repairing their bicycles.

Sandra will give you some advice.

Is she feeding the chickens?

Was Yasmin reading her lines correctly?

Passive Voice

Rewrite the sentences below so that they are written in the passive voice. Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

I was repairing their bicycles.

Their bicycles were being repaired.

Sandra will give you some advice.

Some advice will be given to you by Sandra.

Is she feeding the chickens?

Are the chicken being fed by her?

Was Yasmin reading her lines correctly?

Were the lines being read correctly by Yasmin?