

Placing Commas in Sentences

Someone has stolen all the commas!

Write out these sentences and put the commas in the right place.

1. At the shop I bought eggs milk and bread.
2. Class 4R had a red group a green group a blue group and a yellow group.
3. Joseph had a sandwich an apple and a packet of crisps for lunch.
4. Jon had a beginning middle and ending in his story.
5. Isabelle was learning to play the recorder the drums and the violin.
6. George swept the floor washed the dishes and wiped the side.
7. Mr Grog taught Maths English Science and French on Tuesday.
8. Haifa walked along Baker Street down Fenton road and then crossed over the road to school.
9. On Saturday I played on my bike did some baking and then played pairs with my sister.
10. In the summer holidays I visited Manchester Leeds and Hull.

Placing Commas in Sentences

Someone has stolen all the commas!

Write out these sentences and put the commas in the right place.

1. At the shop I bought eggs, milk and bread.
2. Class 4R had a red group, a green group, a blue group and a yellow group.
3. Joseph had a sandwich, an apple and a packet of crisps for lunch.
4. Jon had a beginning, middle and ending in his story.
5. Isabelle was learning to play the recorder, the drums and the violin.
6. George swept the floor, washed the dishes and wiped the side.
7. Mr Grog taught Maths, English, Science and French on Tuesday.
8. Haifa walked along Baker Street, down Fenton road and then crossed over the road to school.
9. On Saturday I played on my bike, did some baking and then played pairs with my sister.
10. In the summer holidays I visited Manchester, Leeds and Hull.